

DRU HALVERSON

RDH, BS, Director of Quality Assurance

- Dru Halverson is the director of quality assurance and is also a coach for Jameson.
- She has been in the dental profession since 1981 and has worked with the Jamesons since 1985.

Halverson received a bachelor's degree in Community Health Education with a minor in Sociology from Oklahoma State University and her second bachelor's degree in Dental Hygiene from the University of Oklahoma.

She has worked in Dr. John H. Jameson's dental practice as hygienist and office manager from 1985 until Dr. Jameson's retirement in 2003, and has worked with Cathy Jameson helping to take the consultation business now known as Jameson Management, Inc., to new heights year after year since 1988.

She has proven to be the best of the best in coaching both the management and clinical aspects of the consultation experience. As director of quality assurance she is often involved in communication among Jameson coaches and clients, as a trainer of the coaches and as a developer of new material for the clients and coaches.

Halverson has published articles in RDH, Dental Economics, Independent Dentist and Dental Practice Success. She has lectured at several study clubs and major events. She has been involved with Jameson Advanced Seminars through the years helping to develop and instruct those courses.

“My life has drastically changed since Dru Halverson came into the practice. Production is up! Collections are up! Stress is down! More time for family and fun! I recommend your services to all who will listen. Jameson’s commitment to excellence and attention to detail is unsurpassed.”
