"I have participated in quite a few workshops on leadership and team building. This was the most beneficial one I have been a part of. Connie is very knowledgeable and easily got the entire class to participate, which only increases the effectiveness." - Dennis Packard

"I really appreciate the fact that I now understand my team's behavior patterns and now have positive ways to deal with issues that arise. I can now develop a vision/goal and, with my team's help, implement the goal for success." - Dr. Brian Patten
